

André Haller / Hendrik Michael (Eds.)

Scandalogy 2

Cultures of Scandals – Scandals in Culture

HERBERT VON HALEM VERLAG

Content

ANDRÉ HALLER / HENDRIK MICHAEL Introduction	7
HANS MATHIAS KEPPLINGER Functional Analysis or Impact Research – Where Is Scandal Research Going?	16
CHRISTIAN VON SIKORSKI The Affective Tipping Point in Political Scandals: Explanations from Political Psychology on the Conditional Effects of Scandals	36
MONIKA VERBALYTE Evoking Forgiveness Without Apology: Emotional Anatomy of the Political Resignation	51
ANNIKA KLEIN / MURIEL MOSER Modern Scandal Theory and the Case of Clodia and Cicero in Ancient Rome	82
MARTIJN ICKS / ERIC SHIRAEV Character Assassination and Scandalogy: How and Why Character Attacks Cause Scandals	104
MARK FELDSTEIN Spies, Murder and the Mafia: Exposing a Scandalous Cold War Conspiracy	124

W. TIMOTHY COOMBS / SHERRY J. HOLLADAY	144
How Scandal Varies by Industry: The Effect of Industry Culture on Scandalization of Behaviors
ROBERTO MINCIGRUCCI	162
Political Scandals in the Age of Pop-politics: The Glamourization of Corruption
ADRIANA MONTANARO-MENA	184
Reversed Arguments: Transformation of an Issue on Human Rights into a Scandalous one
GEMMA HORTON	218
Politicians' Private Lives and Scandals: How the Law and Journalistic Cultures Offer Protection of Politicians' Private Lives During Scandals
ANNA KLEIMAN	249
Dress to Oppress: Performing Blasphemy on the Red Carpet
ANDREJ ŠKOLKAY	272
Media Coverage of Corruption: Scandalogy Challenges of the Analysis of Corruption Based on Media Reporting and Selected Corruption Cases
Authors	299